VAST CROWDS CHEER PRESIDENT'S SHIP

President Wilson Stood on The Bridge and Waved to The Multitudes on Shores

Tinner and Convoy Put to Sea With Bands Playing Martial Airs

History Making and Precedent Shattering Voyage Begun Under Auspicious Circumstances

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, December 4.—Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States, sailed today for Europe to participate as one of five representatives of the United States in the peace conference to be held in France. The transport Geo. Washington got under way at 10:15 a. m.

The President's party included two other members of the American delegation—Secretary of State Robert Lansing and Henry White, former Ambassador to France and Italy.

Col. E. M. House and Gen. Tasker H. Bliss, the other two members, are already in Europe. As the Geo. Washington swung out into the North river on a voyage unprecedented in American history, President and Mrs. Wilson stood on the flying bridge, the highest point to which passengers could climb. An army band on the shore played "Over There."

With the President waving his hat to cheering throngs aboard river craft, which crowded nearby waters, the Geo. Washington turned her head toward the sea shortly after 10:30 o'clock.

The big ship backed more than half way across the river before she turned and when two destroyers and a naval tug took her in escort for the trip down the bay, the maneuver was witnessed by a multitude of persons crowding roofs and upper windows of New York skyscrapers and piers on both sides of the Hudson.

As the fleet started down the bay a cloud of airplanes dropped from the clouds and executed a series of daring loops above the President's ship.

The liner and its convoy steamed toward the sea with the Geo. Washington band playing martial airs and with harbor craft of all kinds including many allied merchant ships, dipping flags and tooting whistles in salute to the departing chief executive.

Off Staten Island, whose shores were black with throngs who had waited since early morning to witness a precedent-breaking spectacle in American history, the Geo. Washington met its ocean convoy, the dreadnaught Pennsylvania, and a quintet of destroyers, trim in new coats of battleship grey. As the squadron passed through the gates in the submarine set which stretches across the narrows and within 500 feet of the Staten Island, a group of several hundred school children was transformed at a word of command into

PRAISES GREAT U. S. NAVY

Admiral Jellicoe, former Commander-in-Chief of the British Grand Fleet, speaking as the guest of the American Circle Lyceum Club at London, said the situation last spring was critical, and had it not been for the United States navy he was sure the dinner could not be held. It was that assistance, Admiral Jellicoe continued, that had made possible the convoy system, and it was that system that had saved the situation.

a sea of waving flags. Across the waters of the Hudson just as the Geo. Washington was about to sail there came the roaring cheers of more than 2,000 American soldiers returning to American shores on the British transport Lapland.

From crowded rigging, from densely packed rafts and from every port hole the home-coming fighting men shouted greetings to the President, and from the deck of the Presidential liner and the destroyers guarding her, answering cheers came back.

CAMP SHERMAN DESEGNETED FOR DEMOBILIZATION

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 4.—Thirty camps were designated by the War Department today as demobilization centers to which enlisted men are to be transferred for discharge from the army, among them being Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio.

Commanding officers are instructed to discharge enlisted men only when such men are within 350 miles of the point of their entrance into the military service, otherwise to transfer them to another camp near the point of induction.

Officers in command of the camps are authorized to discharge all men sent them under today's orders, who, on examination, are found eligible to discharge under previous instructions. They are instructed to expedite in every way possible such discharge.

MILK PRODUCERS UNABLE TO AGREE

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, December 4.—Milk producers and distributors of Ohio after all morning session were unable to agree upon prices to be paid the producers by the distributors and at two o'clock began argument before Commissioner Croxton, for an increase in prices already fixed by the Federal Milk Commission for Ohio.

FIRST YANKEE FIGHTERS RETURN ON MAURETANIA

Four thousand, two hundred and five olive drab clad American fighters from "over there" have arrived at New York aboard the big British liner Mauretania. The soldier contingent is one of the first to return from the European war zone. There are 1,269 wounded among the arrivals, most of whom were carried aboard an accompanying hospital ship. The photo, taken from the deck of the Mauretania, shows a group of Yanks getting their first glimpse of the Statue of Liberty, after almost a year overseas.

SENATE BEGINS DISCUSSIONS OF PEACE PROPOSAL

Chief Executive Should Not Make Radical Proposals Abroad Until Certain Nation Approves

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, December 4.—General discussion of President Wilson's 14 peace principles was started in the Senate today by a speech of Senator Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, republican, advocating a resolution he had introduced calling upon the President to make a public declaration interpreting the principles.

The Senator said the President's 14 points were open to various interpretations and added:

"The President should not on behalf of the American public, make radical proposals until he is sure that they are endorsed by the people."

Senator Walsh, of Montana, democrat, declared that lack of criticism until recently of the President's 14 terms had justified general belief in their acceptability. Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, and Poindexter, of Washington, republicans, sharply dissented.

During the debate Senator Borah, of Idaho, republican, introduced a resolution providing for publication of the peace terms as soon as agreed upon and for open discussion during consideration of the treaty in the Senate.

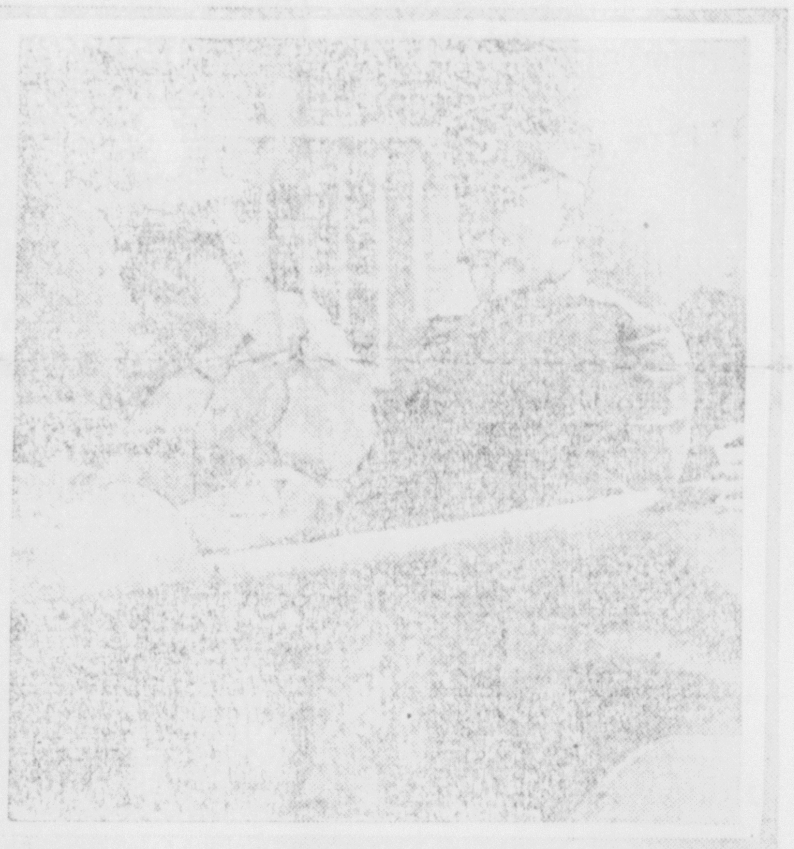

DENIAL MADE OF ULTIMATUM CHANGE RUMOR

(By Associated Press)

London, December 4.—The Express claims to be able to deny the report from Berlin yesterday that a new ultimatum had been sent to the German government because all the motives to be handed over under the terms of the armistice cannot be delivered at once.

The paper says it is true that Germany is not keeping up to the stipulated schedule and that Marshal Foch has given warning that Germany will be responsible for further delay, but he has not fixed the time limit for carrying out of the cause relative to railroad equipment.

SENATORS NOT FAVORABLE TO CUMMINS PLAN

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, December 4.—Action on the resolution of Senator Cummins of Iowa, republican, proposing that a Senate Committee be sent to Paris for the peace conference was postponed until tomorrow by the Senate Foreign Relations committee today, after an executive session to discuss the question and hear Senator Cummins in his behalf.

When the meeting was over administration leaders said privately the resolution would not be approved. Most democrats on the committee opposed it while the republicans were divided on the subject.

In opposing the resolution democratic committee members, it was stated, took the ground that a Senate committee might embarrass the President, that it would be without invitation or official standing; that it is unnecessary in view of President Wilson's assurance Monday that he would fully advise Congress regarding his action and that appointment of such a committee would be an extraordinary and unusual procedure.

To this Senator Cummins is reported to have replied that the President's course in going to the conference is so "unusual and extraordinary" and that the Senate should have representation on the ground to secure full information.

STUPENDOUS SUMS HANDLED IN REPORT

Nation's Part in War Made Plain in Report of Treasury Department.

Tremendous Expenditures of the Nation For Army and Navy Operations and Preparation.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—(Associated Press)

The financial history of America's part in the war set forth by Secretary McAdoo in his annual report started before his resignation, and made public today by the Treasury, is the history of how the American people paid billions in taxes, raised four great liberty loans and created a tremendous pool of credit with which the Treasury through its many war agencies paid the bills of the army and navy, the Shipping Board and other government departments, loaned billions to the Allies and millions to war industries, helped support the families of soldiers and sailors and aided farmers over periods of financial stringency.

"The payment into the Treasury of vast sums in war taxes and from bond sales," said Secretary McAdoo, "and the transformation of our varied and complex economic life to the supreme task of winning the war have been accomplished without shock or financial disturbance. The credit and business structure of the nation remains sound and strong. The results of the four liberty loans are a tribute to the patriotism of the American people and to the economic strength of the nation."

The report constitutes Secretary McAdoo's final accounting of his stewardship before retiring as the nation's finance minister. Throughout the report, McAdoo refers repeatedly to the remarkable achievements of America's civilian population in providing the material and money for war, and acting as the "eager second line of defense."

Commenting on the showing of the financial arrangements in great detail by the document, Treasury librarians recalled that the financial history of the Civil War is buried in a great stack of dusty ledgers, and probably never will be officially compiled.

One Third Taxes
For the fifteen months ending last June 30 Secretary McAdoo estimated that the actual cost of the war, with allowances for the governments ordinary expenses in ordinary times, amounted to $13,222,000,000. Nearly half of this, or $6,499,000,000, went to permanent investments, in the form of ships, shipyards, war vessels, army camps, buildings, and in loans to the Allies or to American war industries. Of the year's expenses $16 per cent came from taxation.

The civil establishment of the government during the year spent $1,507,000,000, while the war department spent $5,654,000,000 and the navy $1,368,000,000. For support of the army alone the government paid out $4,122,000,000. The naval expenditures included the construction of new vessels, machinery, armament, equipment and improvements of navy yards. Total ordinary disbursements for the year amounted to $8,966,000,000 and ordinary receipts, excluding money received from Liberty Loans, amounted to $4,174,000,000. Loans to Allies during the year amounted to $4,739,000,000 additional.

Looking Forward
Looking forward, Secretary McAdoo found great difficulty in forecasting expenditures for the current fiscal year which ends next June 30, on account of the sudden coming of peace. Estimates which he presented are based on calculations of each department in advance of revisions since he signing of the armistice and he does not consider them reliable. With his explanation Mr. McAdoo forecast expenditures for this year at $20,687,000,000 for government purposes and 4,375,000,000 for loans to Allies and 2,540,000,000 for redemption of outstanding certificates and other debt cancellation. Total estimated disbursements for the year were put at $27,180,000,000.

Nation's Receipts
Against this estimate which actual expenses at the rate of a little more than a billion and a half dollars a month to date, indicate is too high, Mr. McAdoo calculated that the government would receive about $5,000,000,000 before the end of the fiscal year next June 30, from income and profits taxes, $1,100,000,000 from other taxes, $190,000,000 from customs and $555,000,000 from miscellaneous sources, including $70,000,000 from increased postage, making estimated receipts from ordinary sources $5,845,000,000. In addition, he figured roughly on a little more than $5,000,000,000 from further issues of Liberty Bonds and $1,200,000,000 from war savings. These figures added to receipts from Liberty Loan bonds already sold make $11,665,000,000 the total of popular borrowings expected during the year. On this basis total estimated receipts would be $21,022,000,000 or $6,654,000,000 less than tentative estimates of disbursements. Actual developments are expected to change these calculations greatly.

WILL OPPOSE MILITARISM

(By Associated Press)

New York, December 4.—Prior to president Wilson's departure today for Europe to attend the peace conference it became known that he goes determined against militarism in any form. The crushing of Prussian militarism was a part of his plan for the future peace of the whole world. The President feels, according to persons who conferred with him on the transport, George Washington, before it sailed.

CONTEMPT OF COURT IS CHARGE FILED

Mrs. Lora Jones of Mt. Sterling has been cited to appear before the Probate Court in this county to give reasons why she should not be tried for contempt of court, the action growing out of her refusal to pay as trustee of Harold Jones $50 per month alimony assessed against Harold Jones.

The court awarded Mrs. Thompson alimony in the sum of $50 per month, and this has been paid until recently, when the trustee, Lora Jones, refused to have it assessed, and when Harold Jones entered the military service it relieved him of the necessity of paying the stipulated monthly alimony.

December 6th is the date set for her appearance to answer to the contempt charge.

STREET REPAIRS WELCOMED BY ALL

A host of people have been made glad the past day or two, by the beginning of the elimination of numerous dangerous breaks in the paving on Court street, and several of the worst places have been repaired by the application of brick and cement so that the dangerous "cracks" are a thing of the past.

It is to be hoped that the work carried to other parts of the up-town section where many breaks have rendered them highly disagreeable and very dangerous.

For many weeks the bad streets in the up-town section have been the cause of untold untimely accidents by strangers and local citizens as well.

ARTIFICIAL LIMB PLANT GETS BUSY

The necessary machinery for properly handling the business will be added to the present equipment of the firm.

Miss Huff alleges in her petition which was filed by Attorney F. L. Johnson, that the defendant promised to marry her in 1917, and that she has been ready and willing at all times to marry him. Miss Huff lives on South Detroit Street and is employed at the shoe factory. —Kenton Gazette.

CRAIG BROTHERS

NEWSPAPER WINS IN DAMAGE SUIT

Tuesday morning at the beginning of the second day of the hearing of the case of Fred Tappemeyer vs. The Journal-Republican Co., in Court, Judge Clevenger ordered the jury to return a verdict for the defendant, declaring that the case was groundless in law.

The case, which grew out of a newspaper article appearing in the Journal-Republican more than two years ago, was brought into court by Mr. Tappemeyer, who stated in his petition that the article had damaged him and he asked for $25,000 as a claim for the injury.

Once or twice the case had been set down for hearing, it is stated, but was continued for different causes.

Judge Clevenger held that the newspaper article, on which the suit was based, was not libelous per se, and for that reason ordered the jury to return a verdict for the defendant.

The plaintiff was represented in Court by Messrs. Foster and Swartz, of Cincinnati, and C. W. Swaim, of Wilmington, while the defendant was represented by G. P. Thorpe, Doan & Cartwright and Smith, Rogers and Smith.—Wilmington News.

News of Interest to Women

At the regular session of the Browning Club Tuesday night, Mrs. Jess Persinger, Chairman of the Household Economics Department was in charge. Resolutions concerning the Food Administration Pledge were made and adopted unanimously, and the requester letter of these resolutions were sent to the Food Administrator. Action was also taken in having a letter of sympathy sent to Mrs. A. W. Duff a prominent club member, in regard to the death of her father.

Mrs. V. J. Dahl in a comprehensive paper on "Food, An International Problem" started with the starving conditions of Serbia, Armenia, Palestine and Roumania. And as a result of these conditions the Food Administration of the United States was established. As result by voluntary conservation five hundred thousand tons of sugar, thirty-three million barrels of flour were sent to our soldiers and allies in four months time.

In finishing she said, "That hunger does not breed reform, but madness and all the ugly distempers, that make an ordered life impossible, and that if we wish to have peace and contentment out of these chaotic conditions we must still endure only in the necessities of life."

Mrs. Persinger read an excellent paper on "Profession of Home Making," and said the greatness of this profession is in so much as it applies to the problems of personal health and home life. She gave a brief outline of its contents including household sanitation, problems of appetizing and wholesome meals personal hygiene, the question of household finance, and household management the study of textiles and clothing, and finally children.

The woman, who announces that housekeeping is a drudgery, thus confesses that she has been unequal to her task. In conclusion, Mrs. Persinger said, "The home makers of America have a making of a nation and just so far as they shall attain perfection and efficiency so shall our country rise to the highest pinnacle of success and well being."

The Christmas program of the Cecilians was presented Tuesday afternoon in the Federated Club rooms Mrs. Nina M. Craig, president and Mrs. Winnie W. Shoop, Vice President were in charge of the short business session.

According to an estimate made public recently by the National War Council of the Young Woman's Christian Association, approximately 2,000,000 American women have been engaged in war work during the past year. And in connection with this it is interesting to note the following article by Henry Rood in Collier's on what the English women have done.

Mr. Rood says:
"It was Lloyd George himself who declared, after the great German offensive: 'If it had not been for the splendid manner in which the women came forward * * * often in daily danger of their lives, Great Britain and I believe, all the Allies would have been unable to withstand the enemy attacks of the last few months.'"

When the war broke out 200,000 British women were engaged in industrial occupations, a majority being employed in textiles. At present more than 5,000,000 British women are doing work formerly performed by men in 1,701 different occupations; of these 5,000,000, 300,000 are working as farm laborers and 20,000 are in the uniform of the "WAAC" (Woman's Army Auxiliary Corps), performing invaluable service in France as well as in England. British women in shipyards have made it possible to prevent German submarines from bringing England "to her knees." During the past year England has found it possible, in fact, not difficult, to build a ship complete in every part while using no labor whatever but that of women—not a man being employed.

It is especially interesting to note the following, furnished by the British government's Bureau of Information: "Five thousand British girl soldiers have been sent to the American army in France. These are engaged in clerical duties, and some are making pies for the American boys."

The fortnightly meeting of the Sugar Grove W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Anna Hardway Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Elva Post in charge.

Singing of "America" opened the meeting followed by Roll Call, the members heartily responding with bright little speeches telling some personal reason for giving thanks.

Miss Minnie Brakefield read a stirring poem—"We'll Make the Map All White," Mrs. Frank Haines a paper on "Thanksgiving," and Mrs. Blanche Boyer "One Washington Letter."

After Mrs. Laura Pine's prayer on "African Missions," it was voted by the Union to donate the sum of five dollars toward making a cheerful Christmas for the children at the County Home.

CONFESSION HALTS TRIAL OF GIRL

MISS ELIZABETH BAKPA AND JAMES F. REGAN

When she seemed hopelessly enmeshed in a tangle of circumstantial evidence indicating she had slain Mrs. Helen Hamel, rooming house mistress of No. 507 West Twenty-third street, New York, on February 13, 1918, the trial of Miss Elizabeth Bakpa was halted through the confession of James Regan, a Sing Sing convict, that he and a pal, so far unidentified, had killed Mrs. Hamel, Miss Bakpa, who is nineteen years old, was a roomer at the Hamel house, and disappeared the day the crime was discovered. She had been facing trial in New York for several days when the confession of Regan was received. Regan was convicted of burglary in Brooklyn last August, and sentenced to Sing Sing prison for ten years. He was known to city police as an "habitual criminal."

Germany Must Act or—

The startling news from the zones now under the law of Marshal Foch's armistice terms may not, at once, develop into the taking of such decisive action as the occupation of all Germany by the allied armies but the people of the allied and associated nations need not be greatly surprised if that action is eventually taken.

The Germans have, judging from their actions, learned little, if any, of the great lessons of the war. They seem as deceitful and as determined to have their own devilish way as before the conflict occurred.

There is much evidence that the German war lords are still the controlling power in Germany and that they are still masquerading behind figurehead officials and issuing false propaganda with the intention to deceive the world and gain some advantage.

They seem determined that they will not relinquish their hold and that they will not honestly live up to any agreement.

The allied nations are not going to endure very much longer the present status. They will tolerate no avoidance of the armistice terms and neither will they permit the Kaiser and the Crown Prince to stage a "return from Elba."

The Kaiser and his degenerate and halfwitted offspring must be checked in their parade along the border and dragged before the bar of justice to answer for their crimes. With them and a few of the other arch criminals out of the way finally maybe the world can determine who is really who in Germany and make progress toward peace.

There must be an end of this deception, false dealing and evasion. Germany if there is to be a Germany at all must live up to its agreement in letter and spirit. If Germany is unable to understand that (and soon too) then we may be compelled to occupy the territory.

The President Leaves

President Wilson is on his way to Europe to take part in the discussions preceding the final peace conference in Paris.

The prayers of millions of Americans and liberty-loving people, in every land on earth, will follow the nation's chief executive throughout his journey, that he be spared to participate in the great world conference and that he be guided and given strength to meet the great questions which will arise, that he be given strength to combat for the great principles of justice and humanity, that success crown his efforts and his labors concluded, that Providence guard his safe return to America.

Never in history has the representative of a great nation embarked upon a journey of such tremendous importance, never has the executive of a victorious nation approached the conference table with more unselfish purpose and nobler ideals than the president of the United States.

In his address to Congress on Monday, President Wilson stated that millions of Americans had fought for and thousands of Americans had died for the ideals of the nation, and he did not believe he would be doing his duty if he did not go himself, as the chief executive of the nation, to the conference table to urge the adoption of those ideals with all the power of which he was capable.

The Red Flag

In the larger cities of the land, New York, Chicago and other great and populous industrial and commercial centers officials are rigidly enforcing orders against the display of the red flag.

There is no room for the red flag in this country, and no room for the men or women who insist on displaying it. The red flag is the emblem of disorder, anarchy, murder and assassination. To carry and display a red flag in any land is an open declaration of hostility to organized society an evidence that the one in whose possession the red flag is found is an enemy to the government and is plotting to overthrow it. The red flag has no other meaning and those who carry it can have no other explanation of their conduct.

America should act promptly with all red flag adherents, whether they be new converts to the cause of anarchy or old offenders, whether they be determined criminals or mentally deficient. Men and women who are not content to live in America, abide by the decree of the majority, who seek to establish a reign of terror by the minority mob of law breakers and anarchists should be deported or confined in a penal institution or mad house.

The challenge of red flag should be accepted at once by the officials and that which the red flag anarchists advocate—force—applied at once to them by the government.

POEM FOR TODAY

THE DOUGHBOY PROMISES SHE

When you come back—
Ah, 'twill be such returning
As only lips like mine can sanctify!
Then will my arms, that ache with endless yearning,
Find sweet surcease from the regret of learning
To give you up, if need there be, to die.

Should you come back
Aged from the toll of fighting, Marred, it may be, though perfect
you set out,
What matters, so your heart has known no blighting,
Your soul has met the test without affrighting?
What is there, dear one, after that,
to doubt?

Oh, but you must come back to me, beloved!

Wounded or no, you must come back
HE.

When I come back,
Beneath my helmet muddy,
There'll be a smile, stored through the strife, for you;
There'll be a kiss, tender and warm
—aye, ruddy,
With hint of Gallie skies, for my real buddy.
(That's soldier talk, and soldier talk rings true.)

As I come back,
Down the street flags adorning Half seeing all the pomp for sight of you.

For aye I'll know of glad some days
aborning
For us, come out of Night at last to Morning
From the Long Trail that terminates for two.

Oh, but I will come back to you, my Mother!
Wounded? Why, no! * * * I will come back!

LABOR BUREAUS MUST FIND WORK FOR THE SOLDIERS

Columbus, Ohio, December 4.—The important task ahead of the federal government and the United States Employment Service specifically is to see that released soldiers are assimilated promptly by civil pursuits. It's up to the local U. S. employment offices throughout Ohio to carry the work through successfully.

That was the word passed out today to the 25 local employment offices in the state by C. H. Mayhugh, associated director of the employment service in Ohio, in instructing them to spare no effort to get discharged soldiers promptly placed.

"If you do not have a job in the line that the soldier seeks or cannot interest him in what you have, do not turn him away," said Mayhugh's instructions. "You are to consider it your duty to place him in a suitable job. Use the telephone or other means available to get in touch with employers using men in his line."

HOLIDAY TRADE IS UNDER WAY SHOPS ARE BUSY

Choice of Christmas Goods Now on Display and The Annual Holiday Rush is At Hand.

Big Lines of Suitable Gift Things — Stores Have Holiday Air.

The holiday shopping days are here, and the old admonition to "shop early" never was urged to better advantage than this year, because the Christmas shopping very speedily is going to turn into a race, and those who wait until the last few days will find that they will experience greater difficulty as the final hour of shopping approaches.

Already the stores, which for some time have been assuming a genuine yuletide air, are being visited daily by the ever-increasing number of shoppers, and as usual shoppers do not have to go elsewhere to find what they are after, for the lines of goods are large and attractive, and gift things by the thousands are available.

Early shoppers, as usual, will have the pick of the great mass of Christmas things, and will not be bothered by a jostling throng and find clerks covered up with work.

The various stores offer gift things in large numbers, and in price that will suit every pocketbook. That these gift things are meeting the demand is attested by the promptness with which they are taken by the shoppers.

Not only are people from all parts of the county coming to town for their holiday buying, but hundreds of persons from all surrounding communities are beginning to flock to Washington for their usual heavy Christmas buying.

Not a German made article appears in the long list of gift things this season, and very few Japanese articles are in evidence. The Good Old U. S. A. artisans have turned their skill in producing toys and useful gift things for the little folks, as well as for gift articles for the older folks, and the result is that more genuinely clever mechanical toys are in evidence, and they are more substantially than ever before.

A visit to the shops of the city, where they will find Santa Claus land sure enough, is a real treat, and one which parents are not likely to deny their youngsters. And the sights of the stores, with the air of Merry Christmas tide so manifestly in evidence, gladdens the heart of the grown up as well as the kiddies, so that such a visit does much to bring about the realization that Christmas time again is right upon us, just as big as ever, and making hearts glad on all sides.

Federal Reserve System

Concerning the tremendous part played by the Federal Reserve system during the war Secretary McAdoo had this to say:

"The federal reserve system has permitted the enormous transactions connected with the financing of the war to be carried through without shock or disturbance and its services will be not less important to the government and to the nation in facilitating the readjustment from a war basis to a peace basis and to assist the foster thereafter the development of agriculture, industry and commerce under normal peace conditions."

Farm Loan System

Referring to federal farm loans amounting to $118,525,000 during the year ending last September 30, the report said: "The existence of this system operated under government supervision, granting long-term loans at reasonable rates of interest, has unquestionably saved the farmers of the United States from many exactions, foreclosures, and denial of financial accommodations during this period. The system has been a harbor of refuge for the borrowing farmer. Through its competition with other loaning agencies it has reduced interest rates almost everywhere in the United States and has saved the farmer in large measure from those financial troubles which otherwise must have beset him. It has constituted the greatest governmental agency for financing the basic industry of the United States—that of agriculture."

The report also dealt with the Treasury's activities in licensing and supervising the liquidation of enemy insurance companies operating in the United States; the Public Health Service's tremendous accomplishments in combatting the influenza epidemic and maintaining sanitary conditions about camps; the International High Commission's success in promoting uniformity of commercial regulations between the United States and Latin American countries, and the tasks imposed upon the Customs Service in connection with the policing of harbors during the war.

AWARDED DIVORCE AND GETS ALIMONY

In Probate Court, Wednesday morning, Rosetta Zimmerman was granted a divorce from D. F. Zimmerman on the grounds of extreme cruelty, and the custody of a minor child was awarded to the plaintiff, who also was awarded $1,000 alimony and the defendant is to pay $3 weekly for support of the child until it is eight years of age; $4 per week thereafter for four years, and $5 and any additional expense for medical or other attention until the child is of age. Defendant is restrained from interfering with the plaintiff.

Post and Reid for plaintiff.

INCREASED RATE CASE BEING HERD

The case of the City against The Washington Gas and Electric Company, to prevent the latter from readjusting and increasing rates for electricity in this city, was argued before the Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday with Attorneys Logan and Pope Grege representing the city, and Reid The Washington Gas and Electric Co.

Substantial increases in prices for current for lighting and other uses was asked by the power company and their application before the Public Utilities Commission was contested by the city, with the result that it was carried to the Supreme Court for final decision.

RAILROADS NOT TO BE RESTORED IN NEAR FUTURE

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, December 4. — President Wilson has no immediate intention of returning the railroads under government control to private ownership, but intends to wait a reasonable time for Congress to formulate and present some mutual policy.

This was stated today by Senator Smith of South Carolina, chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Commission, who had an hour's conference with President Wilson last night.

"His position as I understand it," said Senator Smith, "is that he put squarely up to Congress the question of working out a future policy and that as speedily as is possible. The President has no preconceived opinion on the subject and now waits for Congress to handle the question."

ADVISORY BOARD URGES PAVING OF COLUMBUS HIGHWAY

When members of the Highway Department Advisory Committee wanted everything their way and declared that the Columbus pike should be paved with brick, concrete or other substance besides good macadam, the County officials from Fayette county visited the Highway Department on Tuesday withdrew after arranging for a meeting two weeks hence.

Local officials were somewhat at a loss to know why the advisory member who seemed to be the spokesman, should insist so stoutly brick or concrete when it is desired no such improvement is desired by the representatives of the taxpayers of Fayette county.

Owing to the great expense of paved road, on the "peody" manner in which some of them insist on deteriorating, such highway improve-

JUSTICE DECIDES FRAGRANT CASE

Justice E. W. Rumer, of Bookwalter, has settled one of the most unusual and at the same time fragrant cases that has come before a justice in Fayette county for many a day.

A short time ago Chas. Crawford obtained possession of a skunk, claiming, it is said, that the odoriferous animal which is much prized for its valuable fur, had set foot into one of his traps, had then "pulled up stakes and left", dragging the trap some distance where it was altered the "cat" had walked into a trap set by Ralph Coe.

Coe, upon examination of the vacant trap and from other unmistakable evidence too obvious to mention learned the skunk had been in his trap and following the scent learned that Crawford had removed the skunk from the trap, it is said.

Coe then applied for a writ in replevin and upon hearing of the evidence, which is said to have disclosed that skunk had been caught by one leg only, and that Coe's trap had held the aforesaid leg, awarded custody of the skunk pelt to Coe, at the same time taxing the costs at $4.93, the value of the skunk hide previously having been fixed at $4.50. It was only after the constable had taken assistance and smashed lock on the Crawford smokehouse that the object of contention passed into the hands of Coe.

The case is said to have raised quite an odor in the community.

FARM NOTES

FIGURES ON CORN RAISING

Madison county farmers must raise more than 50 bushels of corn per acre in order to make a profit. A 30-bushel crop, under normal conditions, will not pay interest on the investment, depreciation on farm machinery, taxes, seed, power, labor and other overhead charges. Your real profits do not begin until after you have passed the 30-bushel mark. Raise one 80-bushel crop and you will make more money than by raising three 30-bushel crops. Fixed charges are no higher on large yields, while the cost of the extra labor, fertilizing and care necessary to produce big crops is but slightly greater. The cost per bushel decreases as yields increase. Furthermore, large yields usually stand for quality corn, which brings the top price at the elevator and produces maximum grains when fed. There are a great many farms in Madison county which would produce more corn if they were given the care and attention.—London Democrat.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

HARTMAN THEATER

Beginning Sunday night, December

8, and continuing three nights and a matinee thereafter, "Twin Beds,"

Salisbury Field and Margaret Mayo's comedy frolic will be the offering at the Hartman Theatre, Columbus,

Ohio. As upon the occasion of the previous visit, Lois Polton heads a special company for the present production. "Twin Beds" is a rollicking farce which many experts proclaim the funniest play in the English language. The aim of the authors and producers has been to create real fun and laughter and they have succeeded. The story tells of the differences encountered by three married couples who live in the same fashionable apartment house, who find the enforced neighborliness of the place not at all to their liking and who, in their futile efforts to escape

it, only discover that their troubles are trailing them with burn-like persistency.

"Pollyanna" is coming to the

Hartman, Thursday, December 12, for a three day stay. Hundreds of thousands have read Eleanor H. Porter's joyously optimistic glad-girl stories, now blended into a buoyantly joyous comedy by Catherine Chisholm Cushing, an expert and popular dramatist.

Presented by Klaw & Erlanger and George C. Tyler, the company is composed of Madge Bellamy, fascinating young comedienne; Gordon

Johnstone, John Webster, Fanchon

Campbell, Katherine Rober, Helen

Weatherly, Master Thomas Deely

and others. Mail orders for "Pollyanna" will be received immediately.

There will be a Saturday matinee.
